TITLE? _____

__1__ enjoys staying in a hospital. Being warded in a hospital __2__ often be a depressing and lonely experience. At a hospital in Malaysia, a group of women try to bring some __3__ to the patients. Those who have __4__ to this hospital may have seen women dressed in pink overalls walking about the hospital wards. These women are __5__ the Pink Angels. They get their name when a patient commented that they looked like angels in pink and __6__ then they have been referred to as the Pink Angels.

The Pink Angels are __7__ workers who try their best to cheer up the patients in any way they can. They go __8__ the wards helping or just lending an __9__ to those who want company. The voluntary __10__ was launched last year and it is the only resident organisation of its kind in this country.

A large __11__ of the 'angels' are career women and retired nurses. Several of them are also mothers with their __12__ families. There is __13__ a 71-year-old woman in the group and she has __14__ doing this kind of work for the past 20 years!

One of the projects the Pink Angels are __15__ in is its Fund for Children with Cancer. Children with cancer need special __16__ and this can sometimes cost as much as RM 500 per session. For the poor this is a __17__, becoming a choice between life and death. The project provides __18__ aid to a number of cancerous children.

The Pink Angels raise __19__ in a number of ways like organizing charity dinners and children's fashion shows. And at the end of the day, all of that money goes __20__ helping those who really need it. The Pink Angels are truly good angels!
